Important Residency Requirement

The Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, Restrictions Easement and Party Wall Rights for Seven Bridges Courts Association contains a residency requirement among others for new owners. The requirement states in part, that all new owners must live in the home for three years before renting their home. It is the responsibility of the home owner selling their home to make sure that their attorney, realtor, etc., is aware of this requirement.

Please sign below indicating that you understand the above and confirm that you will pass this information on to your attorney, realtor, etc.
